

ZIEGFELD WILL OPEN OFFICES

El Paso To Be Business, as Well as Dramatic Headquarters of Cinema.

El Paso has been selected by W. K. Ziegfeld as the location for the general offices of the Ziegfeld Cinema company, as well as the location of the studio, according to advice received from him Monday by Charles E. Blanton, local representative. Mr. Ziegfeld is now in New York and for a time considered locating the general offices of the company there, but, according to his letters, he has changed these plans. He announced that the executive offices would be in New York, at 4 East 40th street, and the midwest offices would be located in Chicago, 29 South LaSalle street.

"In our first picture at El Paso we intend to show the world something big and novel," said Mr. Ziegfeld in a letter. The name of the new production will not be announced until it is ready for the film world. He said that he had under consideration an entirely new production which would be considered a wonder in the moving picture art.

Mr. Ziegfeld will arrive in El Paso about August 1 to take charge of the new studio here. Until his arrival, the construction of the El Paso film city will not be started. Mr. Ziegfeld will bring a bunch of New York stars with him and intends to invade the Los Angeles picture country. He said that in addition to the local help which he is attempting to secure.

TOM S. PARKER PIONEER, DIES

Located Town of Tyrone, N. M., Now Big Mine and Smelter Center.

News has been received here of the death in Rochester, Minn., of Capt. Thomas S. Parker, retired pioneer mine owner of the Tyrone district near Silver City, N. M., at the age of 70 years. He had gone frequently of late years to Rochester for medical treatment for stricture of the aorta, which he suffered from for a long time. He was twice married, his daughter residing in San Diego, Cal., and his second wife making her home in Washington, D. C.

About 40 years ago Capt. Parker, civil war veteran, planned, railroad builder and Indian agent in the example, under Gen. Crook against the Apaches, rode across the great arid valley where Tyrone, the mine and smelter city of the Phelps-Dodge group, is now located. He was so impressed that he would settle there and did so later, acquiring an immense acreage of land covering copper and turquoise veins.

Settling Holdings Moves to El Paso. He promoted a number of speculative companies, made and lost several fortunes and finally sold the last of his holdings to the Phelps-Dodge group in 1914, breaking up his home in the little sanatorium city he had built and moving to El Paso, where he lived in Castle Heights addition a time he went to California and later to eastern sanatoriums in search of relief from his affliction.

Capt. Parker said when he was last at Tyrone he wanted to be buried there. No information was received as to whether his wish will be carried out. He was reported to have held thousands of dollars in interest bearing securities of eastern railroads and industries. He once said that he had never invested much money in mining stocks, but had spent fortunes endeavoring to develop mineral bearing lands. He was a pioneer business man of El Paso, having been here frequently since the beginning of the building of this city.

COMES TO HELP FRENCH CLASSES

University Extension Officer Says Will Send Three Professors.

To assist in the formation of classes in French among soldiers at El Paso, the second of which will open at 10 o'clock this afternoon in the Bailey school, Thomas Fletcher, of the extension department of the Texas university has arrived in this city. Mr. Fletcher conferred with C. C. North, representative of the Postoffice soldiers' recreation committee in El Paso, and with A. H. Hughes, chairman of the committee on education of the El Paso soldiers' recreation commission, who is directly in charge of the French classes for soldiers here.

At the work of organization of the French classes has been completed by Mr. Fletcher and members of his committee. Mr. Fletcher, it is believed, will devote most of his efforts to securing needed instructors for the French classes. Mr. Fletcher will leave El Paso this evening.

Three Professors Coming

"I am arranging for three professors of languages from the University of Texas to come to El Paso to assist in conducting the French classes for officers and enlisted men here," said Mr. Fletcher Monday. "Until I return to Austin I will not know exactly who these men will be, but I expect that they will join the night school faculty within a week or so. It being vacation time, it will take a little longer to secure the instructors for this reason."

"The movement started here to instruct soldiers in the French language, in very fine shape. Governor Ferguson instructed me to come out here and see what could be done to assist in the schools and I know that I will do everything possible to assist in the progress of this instruction."

Wilson came from Sioux City, Iowa, where he was born. He has been employed by the El Paso Brewing association for the past 12 years as a millwright and general repair man. He lived at his home near the brewery for the past eight years alone. He is survived by a son, Frank, in Colorado. ## ALL BOOSTING FOR COMPANY B

Recruiters of Other El Paso T. N. G. Units Out For Men To Fill It.

Recruiting for the national guard units being organized in El Paso continues in an effort to secure the number required to bring company B, First Texas infantry, captained by Richard F. Burger, to its necessary strength for mustering. The company is about 10 men short. All officers of the three other units recently organized and filled to their mustering strength are devoting their time to recruiting for the Burger company. Friday, July 28, has been set as the approximate date for the mustering in of the company into the state guard service. Meanwhile, the other companies will accept those recruits who desire to enlist in them in order that they may reach their war strength, it was said Monday.

Must Volunteer This Week

It has been distinctly stated in messages from Gen. John A. Hoken, at Houston, that men subject to draft will not be permitted to volunteer for military service after the first draft is made. This announcement gives the men between the ages of 21 and 31 only a week to enter the army under classification as volunteers.

Four hours training is being conducted by old drillmasters daily at the camps of companies A and B, Kern Place and the school of mines, Ft. Bliss, in order to have the men in shape for the federal muster which has been announced for Aug. 2.

Strike Because Boss Bars Cigaret Smoking

Roswell, N. M., July 15.—Eight workmen employed by a contractor on the new Southern school house went on strike, because, as two of them explained to a newspaper man, the contractor forbade the smoking of cigars by the men while at work. The men said they did not mind as much giving up smoking as they did of being robbed of their personal liberty.

BARCELONA IS TO HOLD SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

Madrid, Spain, July 15.—Barcelona newspapers publish a notice saying that the assembly members of parliament from Catalonia will be held Thursday, notwithstanding all denials, and that the organizers of the movement count on the support of a large part of the army.

Various defence committees have held meetings to discuss against any such manifestations. It is asserted the army will remain aloof from politics and obey the government.

Sixty Catalonia senators and deputies asked the Spanish government recently for administrative autonomy for all provinces and decided to call a meeting of members of parliament in Barcelona unless the government summoned parliament. The government declined to convene parliament.

NEW MEXICO BOUNDARY BOARD TIED UP FOR LACK OF FUND

Santa Fe, N. M., July 15.—Although appointed a board on boundary matters, Justice Frank W. Parker, Dona Ana county, Eufreacio Gallegos, Union county, and James C. Fitch, Socorro county, find no fund available for the prosecution of the suit against Texas, begun several years ago and on which several hearings have been held in the United States court room in El Paso. The members of the board, it is said, will receive no compensation for their services, and a fund of $25,000 provided for in the law creating the board, is held up by state treasurer J. L. Hall, who claims he lacks a court decision on the legality of the law.

LINDSEY APPOINTS NEW MEXICO BOUNDARY BOARD

Santa Fe, N. M., July 15.—Gov. Lindsey has appointed the following state boundary commission: Justice Frank W. Parker, of the state supreme court, state senator Eufreacio Gallegos, and attorney James C. Fitch, the last named being the Democratic member.

LAKE NEAR VINTON PROVES ATTRACTION FOR EL PASOANS

Vinton, Texas, July 15.—The lake near Vinton was a popular place Sunday. A number of El Pasoans came in automobiles to spend the day there. Kenneth J. Lewis, of the geological survey, has left for Billings, Wash. Two other members of the local camp will leave this week to join other parties.
